was what killed Joan of Arc, but that isn't the kind of steak you are after.
People come a long way to secure one of our tender, juicy, hip bone, flat bone, porter house or sirloin beef steaks, or a brace of our luscious mutton, or lamb chops cut from our prime stock. While you live, live right and keep the body nourished with such

It was also unanimously voted by the executive committee to request the management of the Northern Pacific road, the Brainerd Lumber Co.,
and all other institutions of a similar character to shut down their works on Friday, known as Governor's day, that their employees may have a holiday and assist in making the parade
a monster innovation, and Mayor Nevens, Joel Smith and W. Hemstead were appointed a committee to personally wait upon the parties in authority and present the resolution adopted to the above effect.

It was also the sense of the meeting that the school children be requested to participate in the parade on Friday.

Early next week Brainerd will witness the gathering together of from 4000 to 6000 war veterans and friends who assemble in this city for the purpose of celebrating their thirteenth annual re-union and encampment.
They will come from all sections of Minnesota, and Brainerd will greet them with open hands and do everything in her power to make their visit a pleasant and profitable one.
Probably never in the history of the city it will again have the pleasure of entertaining a like body of men, and every citizen should give with his neighbor in giving the boys who wore the blue such a royal welcome that they will never forget the occasion.

Full arrangements have been made in all details, and on Monday evening Chairman Homestead, at the regular

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

The big arch over Sixth street, between the Y. M. C. A. grounds and the railroad park, is being erected today.

Persons who can assist in furnishing evergreens for decorating the arches are requested to notify W. A.
M. Johnston.

Quartermaster Joel Smith desires those who have riding horses and saddles and are willing to let them be used by riders during the Friday parade to notify him at once. Quite a number are needed.

The big cannon and the mammoth tent, two features of the occasion are now in the city. The "gun" is large enough to awaken every individual in the city from a sound sleep and during the coming week its presence will be "felt." The big tent which was purchased for this occasion will be pitched on Sixth street just north of the city park but adjoining the grounds. It has a capacity of seating nearly 2000 people and will be used for various purposes during the encampment. It is expected that the tent will be placed in position on Saturday.

Spiritualistic Camp Meeting.

According to circulars being circulated by Mr. Wilmer Holmes, a spiritualistic camp meeting will be held at Mr. Holmes' summer resort on Gilbert Lake, in this city, from August 1st to 16th. Prominent among the number of invited guests will be Mrs. Leo Fryer, a noted inspirational speaker, who will be present if possible. Mrs. May Goodrich, an able speaker and test medium; the celebrated Santa Teresa Uscos, of El Paso, Mexico, and others. Special healing talent has been invited, Julia Stillings and Dr. M. B. Flippin.
Among the phenomenal mediums invited and expected are Mrs. Emma Holmes, who has in her possession one of the famous speaking dials, which will be on exhibition and operated by her guides; William F.
Langdon and Mrs. M. Durrant, celebrated slate writing mediums; Benj.
Foster, physical medium, and wife, Emma, materializing medium, and the wonderful Miss Houston, the fourteen year old materializing medium, from Thorndale, Ont.; Anne Wheeler, well known materializing, trumpet and independent slate writing medium will be present the entire season.
Music will be under direction of Minnie and Warren Welch.

Monday, June 14, was the 120 anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of the Union.
Long may it wave.

They are attempting to convict a Minneapolis alderman on the testimony of Geo. S. Canfield, formerly of this city. Those who know Mr.
Canfield can appreciate the humor of the situation.

A new annexation treaty with the Hawaiian Islands has been negotiated the formal signing of the same occur-ing at Washington on Wednesday.
It is hoped that the senate will speedily ratify the treaty, as these islands should have been a portion of the United States long ago.

A telegram from Fairmont says
Miss C. M. Ellis, a sister of O. D.
Ellis, the well known horse thief, who
at the present time is serving a sentence at the penitentiary, has paid to Martin county for its trouble $80 and expense in his capture. She has also reimbursed different farmers for depredations to the amount of $340, making $420 paid out. It is reported that Miss Ellis is a California school teacher, and not at all wealthy. Ellis operated in this section and was arrested in Cass county.

Dressmaking.
Mrs. Drysdale employs a first class dressmaker, but that is no reason her prices should be high. You will find her prices as reasonable as any where in the city.

Mrs. J. S. Drysdale,
Front Street.

Five Dollars Reward.
Two cows strayed from my premises, 124 Fourth street north, Brainerd on Wednesday, June 2nd. One is red, with very large horns, giving milk, about five years old. The other is a white and blue color, and will soon give milk. I will pay a reward of five dollars for their return, or for information that leads to their recovery.

Wm. Barron.

N. E. A. Excursion to Milwaukee.
Teachers and their friends who contemplate attending the N. E. A. meeting at Milwaukee, next July, will do well to see that their tickets read via the Wisconsin Central Lines, from St. Paul and Minneapolis. Elegant day-coaches, and the finest Sleeping and Dining Cars, combined with the best train service, making the ride a pleasant one. Your nearest ticket agent can give you full information, and sell you tickets.

Jas. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis.

Heavy Loss in Minneapolis.
The citizens of Minneapolis were shocked to hear that 1000 of the best blossoming plants ever seen in the city had been shipped to the Brainerd greenhouse, arriving Friday June 11, their loss Brainerd's gain. While we unpack these goods come and get your choice at a bargain at the Brainerd Greenhouse, 8th street south.

Order to Examine Accounts, Etc.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, ss
County of Crow Wing.

In Probate Court, Special Term, June 9th, 1897.

In the matter of the estate of Lyman Whipple, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of R. G. Valentine, administrator of the estate of Lyman Whipple deceased, representing, among other things, that he has fully administered said estate, and has in full paid certain debts and claims against said estate, which have not been proved or allowed; and praying that a time and place be set for examining and allowing his account of his administration, including said debts and claims, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate to him.

It is ordered, that said account be examined, and petition and application for the allowance of said claims be heard, on the 12th day of July, 1897, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Probate Court, at Brainerd, in said county.

And it is further ordered, that notice thereof be given to all persons interested, by publishing this order for three consecutive days, to-wit: the 10th, 11th and 12th days of July, 1897, in the said day of hearing, in the Brainerd Dispatch, a weekly newspaper printed and published at Brainerd in said county.

Dated at Brainerd, Minn., the 9th day of June,
A. D. 1897.

By the Court,
MILTON McFADDEN,
Judge of Probate.

The G. A. R. Whelan Quartette, of Minneapolis, are engaged for Camp Fire.

The Great Dutch Comedian, Alex Van Pragg, will be present at the Camp Fire in his latest roles.

War Song Concert, under auspices of John Knox Brotherhood, at the Presbyterian Church, Friday night, June 25. Twenty-five voices will assist.
Entertainments each evening during Encampment at the Sleeper Opera House.

Music will be furnished by the Wadena and Brainerd Full Brass and String Bands.

Camp Spaulding will be supplied with Spencer's Spring Water and Brilliantly Illuminated with Electric Lights.

Early next week Brainerd will witness the gathering together of from
who assemble in this city for the purpose of celebrating their thirteenth
annual re-union and encampment.

They will come from all sections of Minnesota, and Brainerd will greet
them with open hands and do everything in her power to make their visit a pleasant and profitable one.

city will it again have the pleasure of
every citizen should vie with his
the blue such a royal welcome that they will never forget the occasion.

in all details, and on Monday evening Chairman Hemstead, at the regular weekly meeting, completed the committees by appointing the following
on reception:

A. J. Halsted, Mrs. Geo. Forsyth, J. N. Nevens, W. Hemstead, W. Hemstead, H. Thielert, W. A. Fleming, S. L. Sleeper, E. M. Westfall, L. J. Cale, L. J. Cale, A. F. Ferris,
A. F. Ferris, J. J. Howe, Jr., J. J. Howe, Jr., W. J. Koop, W. J. Koop, R. R. Wise, R. R. Wise, J. M. Elder,
J. M. Elder, D. D. Smith,
D. D. Smith, J. F. McGinnis, J. F. McGinnis, N. H. Ingersoll, N. H. Ingersoll, F. S. Parker, F. S. Parker, A. F. Ferris, D. E. Slipp and Geo.
Gardner were appointed a committee on badges, with instructions to furnish members of all committees with appropriate ribbons, indicating their different positions.

It was also unanimously voted by
the executive committee to request
the management of the Northern Pacific road, the Brainerd Lumber Co.,
and all other institutions of a similar
character to shut down their works
on Friday, known as Governor's day,
that their employees may have a holiday and assist in making the parade
a monster innovation, and Mayor Nevens, Joel Smith and W. Hemstead
were appointed a committee to personally wait upon the parties in
adopted to the above effect.

It was also the sense of the meeting
to participate in the parade on Friday.

W. A. M. Johnston was appointed chief marshal in charge of the civic societies on that day, the following having signified their intention of participating: The Workmen, Red Men, Macabees, Fire Department,
Germania Maennerchor, and Uniform
Rank Knights of Pythias.

The Park Region Gun Club tournament, arranged especially for the occasion, will take place on the Brainerd Gun Club grounds on Thursday

tween the Y. M. C. A. grounds and the railroad park, is being erected today.

ing evergreens for decorating the arches are requested to notify W. A.
M. Johnston.

those who have riding horses and
saddles and are willing to let them be
used by riders during the Friday
number are needed.

enough to awaken every individual in
the city from a sound sleep and dur-
pitched on Sixth street just north of
the city park but adjoining the
nearly 2000 people and will be used
for various purposes during the encampment. It is expected that the tent will be placed in position on Saturday.

Spiritualistic Camp Meeting.

According to circulars being circulated by Mr. Wilmer Holmes, a spiritualistic camp meeting will be held at Mr. Holmes' summer resort
on Gilbert Lake, in this city, from August 1st to 16th. Prominent among
the number of invited guests will be
Mrs. Leo Fryor, a noted inspirational speaker, who will be present if possible; Mrs. May Goodrich, an able
speaker and test medium; the celebrated Santa Teresa Usses, of El Paso, Mexico, and others. Special
healing talent has been invited, Julia Stilling and Dr. M. B. Philipp.

Among the phrenological mediums invited and expected are Mrs. Emma Holmes, who has in her possession
one of the famous speaking dials,
which will be on exhibition and
operated by her guides; William F.
Langdon and Mrs. M. Durrant, celebrated slate writing mediums; Benj.
Foster, physical medium, and wife,
Emma, materializing medium, and
the wonderful Miss Houston, the four-
teen year old materializing medium,
from Thorndale, Ont.; Anne Wheeler, well known materializing, trumpet
and independent slate writing medium
will be present the entire season.

Music will be under direction of Minnie and Warren Welch.

MONDAY, June 14, was the 120th anniversary of the adoption of the stars
and stripes as the flag of the Union.
Long may it wave.

Hawaiian islands has been negotiated.
The formal signing of the same occur-
ing at Washington on Wednesday.
It is hoped that the senate will speed-
should have been a portion of the United States long ago.

A TELEGRAM from Fairmount says
Miss C. M. Ellis, a sister of O. D.
Ellis, the well known horse thief, who
at the present time is serving a sentence at the penitentiary, has paid to Martin county for his trouble $80 and
reimbursed different farmers for depredations to the amount of $340,
making $420 paid out. It is reported that Miss Ellis is a California school teacher, and not at all wealthy. Ellis
operated in this section and was arrested in Cass county.

Dressmaking.

Mrs. Drysdale employs a first class
dressmaker, but that is no reason her
prices should be high. You will find
in the city.

Mrs. J. S. DRYSDALE,
Front Street.

Five Dollars Reward.

Two cows estrayed from my premises, 124 Fourth street north, Brainerd
on Wednesday, June 2nd. One is
is part Pol Angus, four years old, is of a white and blue color, and will soon give milk. I will pay a reward
of five dollars for their return, or for information that leads to their recovery.

Heavy Loss in Minneapolis.

The citizens of Minneapolis were
blooming plants ever seen in the city
had been shipped to the Brainerd
greenhouse, arriving Friday June 11, their loss is Brainerd's gain. While
your choice at a bargain at the Brainerd Green house, 8th street south.

Order to Examine Accounts, Etc.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, ss.
County of Crow Wing, ss.
In Probate Court, Special Term, June 9th, 1897.
In the matter of the estate of Lymann Whipple, deceased.

entine, administrator of the estate of Lymann Whipple deceased, representing, among other
and has in good faith paid certain debts and claims against said estate which have not been proved nor allowed; and praying that a time and place be fixed for examining and allowing his account of his administration, including said
debts and claims, and for the assignment of the residue
of said estate to him.

It is ordered, that said account be examined,
said claims and debts be heard by him and not yet allowed according to law, be heard by the Judge of this court on Monday, the 15th day of July, A. D.
1897, at the Court House in said county.

And it is further ordered, that notice thereof be given to all persons interested, by publishing this order for three consecutive weeks prior to the said day of hearing, in the Brainerd Dispatch, a weekly newspaper, and that said notice be published in Brainerd, Minn., the 9th day of June, A. D. 1897.

By the Court,
MILTON MCFADDEN,
Judge of Probate.

Notice.

U. S. LAND OFFICE,
St. Cloud, Minn., May 18, 1897.

Complaint has been entered at this office by

The sporting fraternity are arranging for more ton at Carson in September. And Carson is willing.

The people of the United States read and support as many newspapers as England, France and Germany combined.

As the Fourth of July this year comes on Sunday, the fireworks in order to the third, they won't keep until the fifth.

Henceforth Toronto will resemble other large cities in at least one respect—it will have a car on Sunday. By a narrow margin of a few hundred votes out of 33,000 it has decided. Of course the good people who voted against the cars can continue to walk on Sunday if they wish. Verily "Toronto do move."

The fact that a resident of Washington has died from grief because of the death of his mother-in-law should silence those reckless newspapers that have so long misrepresented this amiable member of the family. The wisdom of the mother-in-law, her kind heart and her unselfish solicitude should be more frequently acknowledged.

The celebration of the queen's diamond jubilee will bring many veterans to the front, but there can scarcely be one more interesting than Lord Leicester. His age is 100 years and he is said to be the Duke of Sussex at her majesty's coronation can be supplemented by the fact that he is probably the only man who, having himself lived through the longest royal British history, could tell that his father lived through the next longest, that of George III.

Com-mander Booth-Tucker of the Station Army was summoned before a New York magistrate on a charge of maintaining a public nuisance by keeping a prayer meeting open all night, thereby disturbing the slumbers of the unrighteous in the neighborhood. When asked to stop a continuous performance prayer meeting, Booth-Tucker evidently does not believe in secret prayer so highly recommended by the highest authority as the host, for which reward openly is the promise.

How many of the younger students of public affairs know that the greatest power of the president of this republic is in the so-called pocket veto? When a bill is passed by congress and returns it to the house, in which it originated, it still can be made a law by a two-thirds vote of the senate and of the house of representatives. But when he refuses from approving, or disapproving an enactment, the measure dies at the expiration of the legal limit of time for action after the adjournment of congress. That is a pocket veto, and frequently used. It is an interesting fact that the chief magistrate derives his greatest power from a provision that is seemingly incidental.

It seems that under the present arrangement Delaware elects its governor on the day of the presidential election and he serves four years. A strong movement is on foot in the state to change the date of the election so that it will be held on the day of the presidential election, and the governor will be elected for a term of four years. The movement is being pushed by a committee of citizens, and it is believed that it will be successful. The governor of Delaware is now a member of the senate, and he is a member of the house of representatives.

One of the most unpleasant incidents of American college life was the sending of a Yale student to the state prison for a professional thing about to engage in a prize-fight. The letter asked the prize-fighter to hang the flag in his corner of the ring, and assured him that if he won the fight it would "light the hearts all true Yale." The student was a member of the Yale team, and he was a member of the Yale team. The student was a member of the Yale team, and he was a member of the Yale team.

A five-acre tract of land in St. Louis county, Missouri, on which Fred Schaeffer has a fine young orchard, has begun to slide down hill, with a great precipitous fall of earth, rocks, and the sliding of the upper crust, thirteen feet thick, has revealed the fact that it overlaid a stratum of superior fire-clay twenty feet thick.

How many of the younger students of public affairs know that the greatest power of the president of this republic is in the so-called pocket veto? When a bill is passed by congress and returns it to the house, in which it originated, it still can be made a law by a two-thirds vote of the senate and of the house of representatives. But when he refuses from approving, or disapproving an enactment, the measure dies at the expiration of the legal limit of time for action after the adjournment of congress. That is a pocket veto, and frequently used. It is an interesting fact that the chief magistrate derives his greatest power from a provision that is seemingly incidental.

It seems that under the present arrangement Delaware elects its governor on the day of the presidential election and he serves four years. A strong movement is on foot in the state to change the date of the election so that it will be held on the day of the presidential election, and the governor will be elected for a term of four years. There is probably nothing that gives trouble to mothers as far as their child's health is concerned, as their inability to fight with worms. Many and many of these troublesome pests become so sick that the baby is thrown into convulsions, is sickly, its little face becomes like wax. It seems to do it any good, its being weakened, and the little one is the most intense pain, and all this the Doctor is trying to find out the cause of the child's illness, and the cause is poor little one is being literally eaten up with worms. Not only do they absorb but these parasites actually sap up the life, often burrowing in and living on the tissue itself.

One thing I have is allergies, if he does not do it should, and is nervous and peevish. Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer. It is in its action, safe to take, it never fails to cure me to phytosis.

One instance of gratitude for a baby's these lozenges comes to us and is as follows:-

My daughter, a grandchild, who was born from the time she was six months old. We tried three different physicians and none of them seemed to do her any good. At last we gave her Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer. It cured her. I am so glad it proved to us that

R. encampment, to bring the local division to that city for the encampment. Tents are promised free for the occasion, if the Knights avail themselves of the invitation.—St. Cloud Journal Press.

Carl Taylor, the erstwhile populist candidate for congress from this district, has been in the city for several days this week. He has been trying to secure the release of his brother, Jas. G. Taylor, who is in jail serving a twenty days sentence for cruelty to dumb animals, and who was found guilty and sentenced by R. B. Coffin justice of the peace at Deerwood last week. Mr. Taylor has not been successful thus far in raising the cash to pay his brother's fine.

Willard I. Stager, formerly a resident of this city, was on Friday last adjudged insane at Sank Rapids, and sent to the asylum at Fergus Falls.

Mr. George Growcox gave a progressive picnic party at the Chiquitana Club rooms on Tuesday evening. Mrs. E. B. McCullough won the lady's prize, and seven gentlemen tied for the gentlemen's prize, which was finally awarded to H. W. Isham. Refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in. Sixty-three guests were present.

Fred J. Sheppard and Arthur Guy, of the N. P. general offices, St. Paul, arrived in the city Saturday, and went to the Club House on Gulf Lake, in company with Sam. H. Parker, Geo. Smith and Frank G. Hall, of this city, on a fishing trip. They returned on Monday with over 200 pounds of fine pike and bass, which were bartered and shipped below, to show the city folks how fish are caught in this locality.

Little Falls entertained the State Fire Association this week and did it in a royal manner. The rain interfering with the programme to a great extent, but not withstanding this fact the visitors succeeded in enjoying themselves. The Brainerd department was represented by F. B. Johnson, Howard Paine, John Osgood, Gus Raymond, N. M. Paine, Wm. Paine, Joe Rasch, Ed Anderson, John Wilmer and Chris Nelson.

A. E. Veon's jewelry store on 7th street was burglarized about midnight on Wednesday night, but the thieves were scared away before much booty was secured. The miscreants effected an entrance by breaking a glass in the front door. Mr. Veon does not know just who they secured, but a kodak, revolver, and several knives are gone. They had not had time to try and open the safe when they were scared away. Mr. Veon is satisfied that he knows who the thieves are. He suspects a couple of tough looking strangers who have been hanging about town for several days, and who were in the store during the day. The police say that these fellows with several others are camping down on the river bank near the brick yard, and they propose to run the whole outfit out of town.

The Big Tent.
The St. Cloud Journal-Press contains the following paring "shot" at the tent which is today being placed in position at the north end of the city park for the G. A. R. encampment next week:
St. Cloud no longer has its "big tent" and Brainerd will in the future be known as the home of the monster. It is purchased of course for the G. A. R. Encampment soon to be held in that city, but its ultimate fate is a matter of conjecture. The tent was bought by a committee of Brainerd business men and will be turned over to the encampment. The plan laid out for its future is to sell it to the next town designated to entertain the park region encampment. Should this plan prevail the tent will be sold to the town. Think of it! Year after year to listen—spell-bound maybe—and possible again too discouraged to even flutter—at the oratory of successive campfires. Every summer when the breeze puff out the side of the great canvass and cause it to grow proud, then to have the wind taken out of its sails as it were by a patriotic orator in depicting the carnage of battle, and leaving its side long and lonely against its supports! It is sad to contemplate. Better far some lumber but less onerous future. Were the tent to be asked for its opinion we submit that it would unhesitatingly declare itself in favor of a fate suggested by a neighboring newspaper contemporary—to be cut into sections and made bloomers for the Brainerd belles, or as another has suggested to still permit it to retain its "autonomy" and to stretch it over some large lake in northern Minnesota to keep at a respectful distance the omnipresent and blood-thirsty mosquito.

Railroad Picnic.
The railroad employees of the Northern Pacific from Brainerd and Staples will hold their annual picnic at Detroit next Tuesday, June 22nd. Arrangements have all been completed and if the weather is favorable a grand good time is expected. The people of Detroit have made extra preparations for the occasion, having dined up new picnic grounds fronting on the lake, erecting pavilions, etc. A fine program has been arranged and a large number are expected to participate.

Still Going.
At $1.50 per dozen. On account of the inclemency of the weather, I will continue for a few days longer the cut prices on my Cabinet Photographs at $1.50 per dozen.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Jane Anna Percy, wife of Wm. Percy, general foreman of the N. P. car shops, died on Friday evening last at her home at No. 35, 9th street north, in this city, of erysipelas, aged 45 years. The lady has long been in delicate health. About two weeks ago, while fixing some vines on the walls of the house, she fell from a step ladder fracturing her right wrist. The injury affected her general health. About a week ago she was attacked with erysipelas, which seemed to yield to treatment and it was thought she was recovering, when she suddenly became worse and died as noted above. The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church on Sunday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Opie assisted by Revs. McKay and Gallagher, officiating. The employees of the car shops as an indication of their sympathy and esteem placed a beautiful floral piece made of roses representing "The Gates Ajar" on the coffin. Floral wreaths were also contributed by the Epworth League and other societies. Mrs. Percy was born in England on October 4th, 1851. In 1880 she was united in marriage to Mr. Percy, and in May of the same year came to this country, settling at Hannibal, Mo., where they resided one year, when they removed to this city, which has been their home ever since. Mrs. Percy was a most exemplary Christian lady, taking as active a part in church work as her health would allow, being a member of the first M. E. church. One son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Percy, who is now a lad of 15 years, and who, with two step sons, Wm. and John Percy, mourn a mother's loss. The afflicted husband and children have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Anna Koppke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Koppke, who live about six miles southeast of the city, on the Daggett Brook road, died on Tuesday, June 18th, of appendicitis, aged 17 years. The funeral services were held in this city yesterday morning at St. Francis Catholic church, Rev. Father Lynch officiating.

Mrs. Gertrude J. Rasmas, aged 86 years, died on Tuesday of old age, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. P. Walters, on Main street west. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m., at the residence of Mr. Walters, Rev. Opie officiating. The lady has made her home with Mrs. Walters for the past 10 or 12 years, her husband dying here about that time.

A Talented Company.
The Bijou Players, one of the very best repertoire dramatic and comedy companies in the whole world, will open a week's engagement at Skeper opera house in this city next Monday evening, June 21st. This company has been playing with splendid success in the east, but came west recently, and is having equally good success. A series of magnificent productions will be presented next week, and all who attend will gladly procure this attraction the best in the repertoire line ever seen in this city. Prices have been fixed as low as possible in view of the excellent character of the attraction, 25 cents for general admission, 35 and 50 cents for reserved seats, and 25 cents for gallery. The following are a few out of many press notices:
"The deafening demonstration of approval last night proved the popularity of the Bijou Players."—Journal, Springfield, Ill.
"A more entertaining, instructive or delightful performance has never been seen in this city."—Daily Argus, Albany, N. Y.
"A company of rare excellence."—Daily Herald, Rochester, N. Y.
"The flattering success achieved by the Bijou Players is probably due to the simplicity and artistic manner in which their plays were produced."—Daily Dispatch, Pittsburg, Pa.

LADIES FREE MONDAY NIGHT.
Every person holding a paid reserved seat ticket will be entitled in addition thereto to one free admission reserved seat for a lady for the opening entertainment on Monday night, June 21st.

Reserved seat sale now open at E. F. Atwood's drug store.

Garrison will Celebrate.
A grand celebration will occur at Crowell's Grove near the Dykeman school house, on Monday, July 5, and great arrangements are being made which will attract a large crowd. A grand bower dance at which good music and fine pavilion will be provided will be one of the attractions. A merry-go-round will be in operation during the entire day and evening. The rag mummy display will be something unsurpassed in that line and it will not pay to miss the sight which will be visible at 10:30 a. m. Speaking, singing, foot races, sack races and tug of war will come off the features. A picnic dinner will be provided for those who do not come provided can purchase an excellent dinner and refreshments at the lunch stands. A game of base ball will take place at 2:30. There is no doubt but that the citizens of Garrison will out do themselves on this occasion and all who can should attend this 4th of July celebration.

The Menasha, Wisconsin, Evening Press, says:
Such was the verdict of those who attended the Lemen Bros' show in this city this afternoon. This afternoon the tents were filled, and will be filled again tonight. The proprietors of the show give a clean and interesting performance. Little Edna, the 15-year-old child, does most remarkable horseback riding, among other feats being a back somersault while the horse is running at a high rate of speed. The fighting Kangaroo caused a great deal of excitement. Elliott brothers did several thrilling aerial acts on a flying trapeze, while the Van family gave clever exhibitions of trick bicycle riding. The menagerie presents many interesting features, among them being Rajah, the big elephant; McKinley, the baby lion; and the Bovaigups, the sea horse.

Transferred the Records.

The formal transfer of the records of Cass county to the new officers appointed by the Cass county commissioners took place on Tuesday the 15th inst. The records were demanded of Auditor Tache about a month ago by C. E. Griffith, the newly appointed auditor of Cass county, but Mr. Tache refused to give them up at that time on account of Mr. Griffith's residence being in the attached territory. The Cass county officials threatened to resort to the courts to get the records, but the matter was settled by an agreement on the part of Auditor Tache to turn them over on June 15th after the settlement, which was done as indicated above. Mr. Griffith presented a certificate of his appointment as auditor and gave a receipt to Auditor Tache for the records which filled several large dry goods boxes. At the same time Treasurer Bryant was given the books of Cass county by County Treasurer Frater on presentation of a certificate of his appointment. Mr. Frater also taking a receipt for them. The Glorious Fourth at Garrison.

Posters have been issued from this office announcing a Fourth of July celebration on Diawidie's point at Garrison, to occur on Monday July 5. The principal feature of the days entertainment will be a grand bower dance. Excellent music will be provided, hence all lovers of dancing will not fail to have an enjoyable time. Refreshments, such as ice cream, cake, strawberries, lemonade, fruit and nuts will be provided. Owing to the fact that the Fourth falls on Sunday the celebration will be held on Monday, July 5th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Result of Cass County Convention.

Pursuant to notice duly given calling a non-partisan delegate convention of the county of Cass for the purpose of selecting a location for county seat, to be voted upon at a coming special election. Said convention was called to order by Wm. H. Hallett, who was elected chairman, and A. J. Collins was elected clerk. After seating the delegates the chairman was authorized to retain an able attorney to look after and direct the petitioners who wish to change the location of the county seat. One hundred dollars was raised for current expenses, George Barclay, of Pine River, giving check for $50.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather but twenty of the sixty delegates attended. Those present, wishing to give every part of the county a chance to vote upon this important question, the convention was adjourned until the 21st day of June, 1897, to meet at Ellis post-office school house, on Section 7, Town 135, Range 31, at 2 o'clock p. m. On said date the delegates present will proceed to select site for county seat. All precincts are requested to have the delegates attend said adjourned convention.

Dated at county convention this 9th day of June, 1897.

WM. H. HALLETT,
Chairman.

A. J. COLLINS, Secretary.

Early next week Brainerd will witness the gathering together of from
who assemble in this city for the purpose of celebrating their thirteenth
annual re-union and encampment.

They will come from all sections of Minnesota, and Brainerd will greet
them with open hands and do every-
a pleasant and profitable one.

city will it again have the pleasure of
every citizen should vie with his
the blue such a royal welcome that
they will never forget the occasion.

in all details, and on Monday evening Chairman Homestead, at the regular
weekly meeting, completed the committees by appointing the following
on reception:

A. J. Halsted, Mrs. Geo. Forsyth,
J. N. Nevens, " W. Homestead,

A. F. Ferris, D. E. Slipp and Geo.
Gardner were appointed a committee
nish members of all committees with appropriate ribbons, indicating their
different positions.

It was also unanimously voted by
the executive committee to request
the management of the Northern Pacific road, the Brainerd Lumber Co.,
and all other institutions of a similar
character to shut down their works
on Friday, known as Governor's day,
that their employees may have a holiday and assist in making the parade
a monster innovation, and Mayor Nevens, Joel Smith and W. Homestead were appointed a committee to personally wait upon the parties in
adopted to the above effect.

It was also the sense of the meeting
to participate in the parade on Friday.

W. A. M. Johnston was appointed
having signified their intention of
participating: The Workmen, Red Men, Macabees, Fire Department,
Germania Maennerchor, and Uniform
Rank Knights of Pythias.

ment, arranged especially for the occasion, will take place on the Brainerd
Gun Club grounds on Thursday

A reception will be tendered the G.
A. R. Veterans at the Arlington hotel parlors, on Friday evening, June 25th from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The citizens and strangers sojourning in the city are invited to be present and meet our honored guests. Members of the Reception committee will please be on hand promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

A. J. HALSTED,
Chairman Reception Committee.

NOTICE TO DECORATE.

The citizens and business men are requested to decorate their homes and places of business during the G.
A. R. Encampment next week. If the matter is properly attended to it will add much to the appearance of the event.

J. T. SANBORN, Chairman.

ENCAMPMENT NOTES.

tween the Y. M. C. A. grounds and
the railroad park, is being erected
today.

ing evergreens for decorating the arches are requested to notify W. A.
M. Johnston.

those who have riding horses and
used by riders during the Friday
number are needed.

the city from a sound sleep and dur-
pitched on Sixth street just north of
the city park but adjoining the
for various purposes during the encampment. It is expected that the
tent will be placed in position on Saturday.

Spiritualistic Camp Meeting.

According to circulars being circulated by Mr. Wilmer Holmes, a spiritualistic camp meeting will be held at Mr. Holmes' summer resort
on Gilbert Lake, in this city, from August 1st to 16th. Prominent among
the number of invited guests will be
Mrs. Leo Fryor, a noted inspirational
speaker, who will be present if possible; Mrs. May Goodrich, an able
speaker and test medium; the celebrated Santa Teresa Union, of El Paso, Mexico, and others. Special
healing talent has been invited, Julia Stullings and Dr. M. B. Flippin.

Among the phenomenal mediums invited and expected are Mrs. Emma Holmes, who has in her possession
one of the famous speaking dials,
which will be on exhibition and
operated by her guides; William F.
Langdon and Mrs. M. Durrant, celebrated slate writing mediums; Benj.
Foster, physical medium, and wife,
Emma, materializing medium, and
the wonderful Miss Houston, the four-
teen year old materializing medium, from Thorndale, Ont.; Anna Wheeler, well known materializing, trumpet
and independent slate writing medium
will be present the entire season.

Music will be under direction of Minnie and Warren Welch.

versary of the adoption of the stars
and stripes as the flag of the Union.
Long may it wave.

Minneapolis alderman on the testimony of Geo. S. Canfield, formerly of this city. Those who know Mr.
Canfield can appreciate the humor of the situation.

A new annexation treaty with Hawaii islands has been negotiated
the formal signing of the same occur-
ing at Washington on Wednesday.
It is hoped that the senate will speed-
should have been a portion of the United States long ago.

Miss C. M. Ellis, a sister of O. D.
Ellis, the well known horse thief, who
at the present time is serving a sentence at the penitentiary, has paid to Martin county for its trouble $80 and
reimbursed different farmers for depredations to the amount of $340,
making $420 paid out. It is reported that Miss Ellis is a California school teacher, and not at all wealthy. Ellis
operated in this section and was arrested in Cass county.

Dressmaking.

Mrs. Drysdale employs a first class
dressmaker, but that is no reason her
prices should be high. You will find
in the city.

Mrs. J. S. DRYSDALE,
Front Street.

Five Dollars Reward.

Two cows strayed from my premises, 124 Fourth street north, Brainerd, on Wednesday, June 2nd. One is
red, with very large horns, giving milk about five years old. The other is a white and blue color, and will soon give milk. I will pay a reward
of five dollars for their return, or for
ery.

Heavy Loss in Minneapolis.

The citizens of Minneapolis were
blooming plants ever seen in the city
had been shipped to the Brainerd
greenhouse, arriving Friday June 11,
their loss is Brainerd's gain. While
your choice at a bargain at the Brainerd Green house, 8th street south.

"SHERIFF" FISHER.

The Union Silverites Popular Candidate Interviewed by a Reporter—His Recent Illness Reported to.

From the Visitor, Lawrence, Mich.
Learning of the recovery of Mr. George W. Fisher, of Lawrence, Mich., from his recent illness, and being informed that he attributed his recovery to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a reporter called at his home and he obtained the following statement which is sworn to.

"I am a life-long Republican and nominee for the office of Sheriff of Van Buren Co., Michigan, upon the Silver ticket, being first duly sworn, deposed and said, during the winter of 1895 his system became run down and blood out of order, continuing tired out and scarcely able to overcome his flooring mill. Any little scratch of the skin immediately caused a sore which grew in size and became very painful. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People being recommended to him by his wife and the neighbors, he was finally persuaded, though being adverse to patent medicines, and used one box according to directions. He now feels in perfect health, and should I injure his skin anywhere on my body, the sore heels would visit me. (Signed) GEO. W. FISHER, Sheriff of Van Buren Co., Mich."

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 14th day of Oct., 1895.
J. E. TRENKLE, Justice of the Peace.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as a patent medicine, but rather as a prescription. An analysis of their properties shows that they contain, in condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, neuritis, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of grippe, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, general debility, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the system to health and vigor. They are the only blood-purifier and blood-builder. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, Schenectady, N. Y., for sale, per box, or six boxes for $1.00.

The News of a Setting Home.

He broke out shortly before noon yesterday in a shed in the rear of 539 East Washington street, owned by Mr. George Hoffman. The firemen saved a life and prevented the fire from spreading. A setting hen occupied a nest in one corner of the shed, and notwithstanding the fact that the fire was burning with the chemical matter, she refused to move. The fire was all about her, finally she got up and carried her hen up to the alley. The hen showed her disposition to peck at the people who were jacking loudly—Indianapolis Sentinel.

She—Oh, that her '36 wheel made over '15's wretchedly uncomfortable—Puck.

WHITE TOPAZ.

Beautiful Stone to Be Seen at the Diamond Palace.

Every day in the week and every hour in the day one can see crowds around the show windows of THE CHICAGO DIAMOND PALACE. The cause of it all is the now widely known White Topaz. The White Topaz, or carbonated diamonds, have come to be recognized as the nearest thing on earth to genuine diamonds. The fact is that the proprietors of the DIAMOND PALACE do not hesitate to place real diamonds in their windows amidst their display of White Topaz, and allow the public to pick them out at the selling price. The latter stones have all the lovely brilliancy of the diamonds, sparkling steadily and with wonderful fire. The thousands of these stones in the windows forms one of the most gorgeous displays anywhere. The White Topaz is one of the features of Chicago.

In order to find out the advertising medium best suited to their business, this enterprising concern offers to send a genuine White Topaz to all those who will cut out and send them their advertisement, which appears elsewhere in this paper, together with 25c in stamps.

THE DIAMOND PALACE, like all successful institutions, has many imitators, who endeavor to sell cheap rhinestones and other pastes calling themselves topaz. We caution the public to be careful, as THE DIAMOND PALACE, American Rhinestones, and Chicago, are the sole importers of these stones.

CAPTURE DON PEDRO.

WHEN we went west in search of gold, we found it at Golden Gulch and staked out our claim. In a month's time we got things running all right, and were congratulating ourselves that the west was not so "wild and woolly" as it is represented. When something happened that threw the camp into great excitement.

One night, Mr. Rogers, whose claim was next to ours, had a fine horse stolen from him. Confusion reigned. A thief in the camp could it be? Everybody was above suspicion, of course. Horse-stealing in the west is punished by death, but no trace of the thief could be found.

And so, a week passed. Then, one morning there arrived in camp a man dressed in a rich Mexican suit, with his sombrero pulled over his eyes and a gaudy silk handkerchief tied around his neck almost like a turban. He had a black mustache. He was a man of slight build and not tall.

He "put up" at Jerry Rogers' "hotel," which also stocked food, rumshop and general house-furnishing store at the Gulch, and gave his name as Don Pedro Gonzalez. The miners looked with suspicion on this man from the East, and his "hotel" was a "put up" at Jerry Rogers' "hotel," which also stocked food, rumshop and general house-furnishing store at the Gulch, and gave his name as Don Pedro Gonzalez.

Allen and Williams at once organized a posse of men to search the mountains for the Mexican. Father was one of the party. In vain I asked them to let me go. No, it was out of the question. I was too young, and as they might be gone all day I must stay at home and watch the claim. Mother had gone to Westend, the nearest town, to buy some goods. She would be back in a few days.

Jack Allen found what he said was a trail up the mountain, so the procession started after the thief. I was in a very bad humor when I thought what a bore it would be to stay on the claim all alone all day. I longed to have a chance to carry the new rifle that father had given me, with all a boy's eagerness to shoot something.

The day passed quietly and I was glad when darkness came and the moon rose from behind a distant clump of bowlders. I went to the window and looked out. How still everything was! How bright the moonlight gleamed on the rocks! I began to wonder whether the men had captured Don Pedro, and how long they would be gone.

Suddenly, a heavy thought struck me—"I'll play cowboy all to myself!" I muttered, and running up the ladder to the loft I opened my trunk and took from it the buckskin suit that I wore to the mine, and which I had put on it on. In my belt I stuck two revolvers that I found on the floor, and then descended to the room below. I put on my father's big felt hat, stuck the biggest carving knife in my belt with the pistols, grabbed my rifle and went out into the night.

When I had kept this up for a little while, I happened to look at the door and there I beheld a man who was watching me with a smile on his face. He was a stout, middle-aged man, with a white mustache. He was a man of slight build and had black eyes and a black mustache. I was sure that it was Don Pedro, although he wore the ordinary citizen's dress. I descended then and there to capture him.

Levelling my rifle at the man's head, I cried:

"Don't move, on your life, stranger!"

"Hold 'em up, you fool!"

"Well, e was ev'ry time I sneezed, I sneeze 't' give the bloke up—'Pick Me Up."

"Hold 'em up!" I repeated savagely, and my visitor obeyed.

"Now, 'em up!" I said, still keeping my rifle leveled at him.

"And sit down on that stool!"

"With pleasure," said my captive; and he did as I commanded.

"Now, 'em up!" I said, still keeping my rifle leveled at him.

CLOTHES OF THUGS.

A Western Lawyer Is Responsible for the Incipient Paralysis of a Waiter.

A western lawyer went into the Platters' cafe a few days ago, says the St. Louis Republic. He had not always lived in the far west, and in his college days in the east was well acquainted with the French bills of fare of swell New York restaurants. But out in the new home he had forgotten about soup au pot rag and pomme de terre a la duchesse. The fact that he could not read some of the delicacies on the menu exasperated him, and he proceeded to have fun with the waiter.

"Nothing here that I'd care for," said he to the clerk-hammered attendant.

"We can serve you anything for dinner, sir," said the waiter, confident that he could please his customer before he got away.

"Have you any nine qua non?" The waiter stammered.

"No-o, sir," he answered.

"What about bon mots? Have you any?"

"No, sir."

"Then let me have some nice ignominious. That's good all this time of the year."

"That's out, too, sir."

"That's out, too, sir."

"You must have E pluribus unum!" This time the waiter looked bright.

"I've heard them speak about it in the kitchen. I'll go and see."

The waiter came back empty-handed and dejected.

"We haven't got it," he stammered.

"Strange that I can't get any of these reasonable things. Try once more, and find out if they haven't pro bono populo."

"I'll call Mr. Weaver," said the waiter, almost crazy by this time.

"Perhaps he can tell what you want."

The guest from the west caught him by the coat tails.

"We have it," yelled the waiter in his delight at hearing of something that would relieve his customer.

The attorney and the hotel man had a good laugh at the expense of the unfortunate waiter, who, what was worse, was in the kitchen that he struck a Delmonico's all his life.

No Pushing.

Apropos of an alleged rattification after majority of the debt contracted during the strike, it was found that it was just debt and promising to pay if the debtor ever got so what he could without inconvenience, the court, in a late North Carolina case, says this recalled to the minds of some members of the court a settled rule of equity which may with propriety be preserved as history in the judicial annals of the state. A debtor named Higgins, when solicited to close an old open account, by the agent of a creditor, refused to do so, and was allowed to pay the debt in full, and accordingly presented the creditor the following:

"I, John Higgins, agree to pay James Higgins $150 whenever convenient; but I am understood that Higgins is not to be pushed."

"Witness my hand and seal this, the day of—"

A. E. Veon's jewelry store on 7th street was burglarized about midnight on Wednesday night, but the thieves were soared away before much booty was secured. The miscreants effected an entrance by breaking a glass in the front door. Mr. Veon does not know just who they secured, but a kodak, revolver, and several knives are gone. They had not had time to try and open the safe when they were scared away. Mr. Veon is satisfied that he knows who the thieves are. He suspects a couple of tough looking strangers who have been hanging about town for several days, and who were in the store during the day.
The police say that these fellows with several others are camping down on the river bank near the brick yard, and they propose to run the whole outfit out of town.

The Big Tent.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press contains the following parting "shot" at the tent which is today being placed in position at the north end of the city park for the G. A. R. encampment next week:

St. Cloud no longer has its "big tent" and Brainerd will in the future be known as the home of the monster.
It is purchased of course for the G.
A. R. encampment soon to be held in that city, but its ultimate fate is a matter of conjecture. The tent was bought by a committee of Brainerd business men and will be turned over to the encampment. The plan laid out for its future is to sell it to the next town designated to entertain the park region encampment. Should this plan prevail we tremble at the fate of the tent. Think of it! Year after year to listen—spell-bound maybe—and possibly again too discouraged to even flutter—at the oratory of successive campfires. Every summer when the brezoes part out the side of the great cavities and cause it to grow proud, then to have the wind taken out of its sails as it were by a patriotic orator in depicting the carnage of battle, and leaving its walls leaning hopelessly against its supports! It is sad to contemplate. Better far some lumber but less onerous future. Were the tent to be asked to give its opinion we submit that it would unqualifiedly declare itself in favor of a fate suggested by a neighboring newspaper contemporary—to be cut into sections and made bloomers for the Brainerd belle, or as another has suggested to still permit it to retain its "autonomy" and to stretch it over some large lake in northern Minnesota to keep at a respectful distance the omnipresent and blood-thirsty mosquito.

Railroad Picnic.

The railroad employees of the Northern Pacific from Brainerd and Staples will hold their annual picnic at Detroit next Tuesday, June 22nd. Arrangements have all been completed and if the weather is favorable a grand good time is expected. The people of Detroit have made extra preparations for the occasion, having fitted up new picnic grounds fronting on the lake, erecting pavilions, etc.
A fine programme has been arranged and a large number are expected to participate.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Jane Anna Percy, wife of Wm.
Percy, general foreman of the N. P. car shops, died on Friday evening last at her home at No. 35, 9th street north, in this city, of erysipelas, aged 45 years. The lady has long been in delicate health. About two weeks ago, while fixing some vines on the walls of her room, she fell from a step ladder fracturing her right wrist. The injury affected her general health.
About a week ago she was attacked with erysipelas, which seemed to yield to treatment and it was thought she was recovering, when she suddenly became worse and died as noted above.
The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church on Sunday at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Opie assisted by Revs.
McKay and Gallagher, officiating.
The employees of the car shops as an indication of their sympathy and respect placed a beautiful floral piece made of roses representing "The Gates Ajar" on the coffin. Floral wreaths were also contributed by the Epworth League and other societies.

Mrs. Percy was born in England on October 4th, 1851. In 1880 she was united in marriage to Mr. Percy, and in May of the same year came to this country, settling at Hannibal, Mo., where they resided one year, when they removed to this city. Mrs. Percy was a most exemplary Christian lady, taking as active a part in church work as her health would allow, being a member of the first M. E. church.
One son was born to Mr. and Mrs.
Percy, who is now a lad of 15 years, and who, with two stepsons, Wm. and John Percy, mourn a mother's loss.
The afflicted husband and children have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Anna Kopple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kopple, who live about six miles southeast of the city, on the Daggett Brook road, died on Tuesday, June 15th, of appendicitis, aged 17 years. The funeral services were held in this city yesterday morning at St. Francis Catholic church, Rev.
Father Lynch officiating.

Mrs. Gertrude J. Rasmus, aged 86 years, died on Tuesday of old age, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. P.
Walters, on Main street west. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m., at the residence of Mr. Walters, Rev. Opie officiating. The lady has made her home with Mrs. Walters for the past 10 or 12 years, her husband dying here about that time.

A Talented Company.

The Bijou Players, one of the very best repertoire dramatic and comedy companies in the whole world, will open a week's engagement at Sleper opera house in this city next Monday evening, June 21st. This company has been playing with splendid success in the east, but came west recently, and is having equally good success. A series of magnificent productions will be presented next week, and all who attend will gladly pronounce this attraction the best in the repertoire line ever seen in this city.
Prices have been fixed as low as possible in view of the excellent character of the attraction, 25 cents for general admission, 35 and 50 cents for reserved seats, and 25 cents for gallery.
The following are a few of many press notices:

"The deafening demonstration of approval last night proved the popularity of the Bijou Players."—Journal, Springfield, Ill.

"A more entertaining, instructive or delightful performance has never been seen in this city."—Daily Argus, Albany, N. Y.

"A company of rare excellence."— Daily Herald, Rochester, N. Y.

"The flattering success achieved by the Bijou Players is probably due to the sumptuous and artistic manner in which their plays were produced."— Daily Dispatch, Pittsburg, Pa.

Every person holding a paid reserved seat ticket will be entitled in addition thereto to one free admission and reserved seat for a lady for the opening entertainment Monday night.

F. Atwood's drug store.

Garrison will Celebrate.

A grand celebration will occur at Crowell's Grove near the Dykeman school house, on Monday, July 5, and great arrangements are being made which will attract a large crowd.
A merry-go-round will be in operation during the entire day and evening. The rag music display will be something unsurpassed in that line and it will not pay to miss the sight which will be visible at 10:30 a. m.
Speaking, singing, foot races, sack races and foot of war will be some of the features. A picnic dinner will take place, but those who do not come provided can purchase an excellent dinner and refreshments at the lunch stands. A game of base ball will take place at 2:30. There is no doubt but that the citizens of Garrison will outdo the others on this occasion and all who can should attend this 4th of July celebration.

The Best Show.

The Menasha, Wisconsin, Evening Press, says:

Such was the verdict of those who attended the Lemen Bros' show in this city this afternoon. This afternoon the tents were filled, and will be filled again tonight. The proprietors of the show give a clean and interesting performance. Little Edna, the 15-year old child, does most remarkable horseback riding, among other feats being a back somersault while the horse is running at a high rate of speed. The fighting Kangaroo caused a great deal of excitement. Elliott brothers did several thrilling aerial acts on a flying trapeze, while the Van family gave clever exhibitions of trick bicycle riding. The menagerie presents many interesting features, among them being Rajah, the big elephant; McKinley, the baby lion; and the bovalope, the sea horse.

seen since parades were first exploited.

Transferred the Records.

The formal transfer of the records of Cass county to the new officers appointed by the Cass county commissioners took place on Tuesday the 15th inst. The records were demanded of Auditor Tache about a month ago by C. E. Griffith, the newly appointed auditor of Cass county, but Mr. Tache refused to give them up at that time
